AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

LIBRARY WAR SERVICE.

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES.

THE American soldier does not expect always to be a soldier. Fighting the battles of his country now, later he expects to be fighting the battle of life. His ambition to succeed in business or profession is reflected by his desire for educational books which he may study with profit.

THE Library War Service of the American Library Association seeks to place in the hands of every member of our fighting forces the book he needs when he wants it, whether he wishes to read for recreation or to fit himself to be a better fighter or a better American, to help him win success after the war.

IT takes money to maintain and expand this service. While gifts of books are welcome, gifts of money to buy the special books the soldiers need are doubly welcome. Any public library will receive either your books or your money for this purpose.

WHAT THE LIBRARY WAR SERVICE DOES.

Builds, Equips and Operates Libraries for Soldiers and Sailors, on This Side and Overseas.

Supplies Books and Magazines for the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., K. of C., Y. W. C. A., Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service and Salvation Army.

Places Libraries on War Ships, Transports and Government Cargo Ships.

Makes the Public's Gifts of Books Available for Our Fighting Men.

Buys Educational and Technical Books to Meet the Demand of the Men for "Books that Help."

Distributes the Magazines Given by the Public through the Post-Office Department.

Maintains Library Service in Every Ward of Every Military Hospital.

Has Sent More than a Million Books Overseas and Must Send Millions More.

No. 551. Week ending Nov. 9, 1918

Seven Reasons for Saving.

1. Save for your country's sake, because it is now spending millions a day and must find most of the money out of savings.

2. Save for your own sake, because work and wages are plentiful, and, as prices are high now, a dollar will buy more after the war.

3. Save, because when you spend you make other people work for you, and the work of everyone is needed to win the war.

4. Save, because by going without you relieve the strain on ships, docks, and railways, and make transportation cheaper and quicker.

5. Save, because by saving you make things cheaper for everyone, especially for those who are poorer than you.

6. Save, because by saving you set an example that makes it easier for the next man to save. A saving nation is an earning nation.

7. Save, because every time you save you help twice, first when you don't spend and again when you lend to the nation. — The Commonwealth.

War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds are the strongest, best-paying securities in the world. Every time you purchase a stamp, every time you purchase a bond, you are buying into the strongest financial power in existence, the Government of the United States of America. You are laying aside real, hard cash, at a splendid rate of interest, to be ready to share in the big opportunities of the future.

BOOKS NEEDED FOR MEN IN HOSPITALS.

"There are tens of thousands of wounded men in our army hospitals and every returning transport and hospital ship brings more thousands. Many of these men will be in hospitals for months, some of them for a year or more, before they are sufficiently recovered to be discharged from the army.

"These men need books. They need books more than they need almost anything else except surgical care and nursing."

Herbert Putnam, formerly Librarian of the Boston Public Library, now Librarian of Congress, who is General Director of the Library War Service of the American Library Association, thus calls attention to an opportunity for service that is open to everyone

For the books that are needed for our men in hospitals and those awaiting demobilization in camps are the books that are on the book shelves of almost every American home.

"What these men need in reading matter is good current fiction," said Dr. Putnam. "The American Library Association has supplied and is supplying technical and educational books by thousands to meet the insistent demands of our men in uniform for that class of reading matter. These books have to be bought, and almost all of the funds available for the Association's Library War Service are required for this purpose and for the maintenance of the service.

"For fiction and general literature we have to depend largely on gifts from the public. Since last spring more than three million gift books have been placed in the hands of our soldiers and sailors. Books wear out, and these books have been widely scattered among the camps on this side and overseas, so now we have no reserve supply of good fiction to draw on for the pressing need of the moment, which is in the hospitals and the demobilization camps.

"Every good recent book that can be spared from anyone's personal book shelf will find its way quickly into the hands of some soldier or sailor who needs mental relaxation and recreation if it is taken or sent at once to the nearest public library. Every public library in the United States is a receiving station for Library War Service and books received are forwarded as speedily as possible to the hospitals and demobilization camps.

"There is no better way to make a Christmas gift to the men who have been wounded in our service than to give books."
